by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-2-311(a)(11) is amended by deleting that subdivision in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

36-2-311.

(11)

(A) Determination of child support pursuant to chapter 5 of this title. When making retroactive support awards pursuant to the child support guidelines established pursuant to this subsection, the court shall consider the following factors as a basis for deviation from the presumption in the child support guidelines that child and medical support for the benefit of the child shall be awarded retroactively to the date of the child's birth:

(i) the extent to which the father did not know, and could not have known, of the existence of the child, the birth of the child, his possible parentage of the child or the location of the child;

(ii) the extent to which the mother intentionally, and without good cause, failed or refused to notify the father of the existence of the child, the birth of the child, the father's possible parentage of the child or the location of the child;

(iii) the attempts, if any, by the child's mother or caretaker to notify the father of the mother's pregnancy, or the existence of the child, the father's possible parentage or the location of the child.

(B) In cases in which the presumption of the application of the guidelines is rebutted by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall deviate from the child support guidelines to reduce the mother's or caretaker's share of the retroactive support award. The court must make a written finding that application and guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in order to provide for the best interests of the child or the equity between the parties.

(C) Deviations shall not be granted in circumstances where, based upon clear and convincing evidence:

(i) the father has a demonstrated history of violence or domestic violence toward the mother, the child's caretaker or the child;

(ii) the child is the product of rape or incest of the mother by the father of the child;

(iii) the mother or caretaker of the child, or the child has a reasonable apprehension of harm from the father or those acting on his behalf toward the mother, the child's caretaker or the child; or

(iv) the father or those acting on his behalf, has abused or neglected the child.

(D) Nothing in this subdivision shall limit the right of the state of Tennessee to recover from the father expenditures made by the state for the benefit of the child, or the right, or obligation, of the Title IV-D child support agency to pursue retroactive support for the custodial parent or caretaker of the child where appropriate.

(E) Any amounts of retroactive support ordered that have been assigned to the state of Tennessee pursuant to section 71-3-124 shall be subject to the child support distribution requirements of 42 U.S.C. 657. In such cases, the court order shall contain any language necessary to allow the state to recover the assigned support amounts.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-5-101(e)(1), is amended by adding the following as new items to that section:

(C) When making retroactive support awards pursuant to the child support guidelines established pursuant to this subsection, in cases where the parents of the minor child are separated or divorced, but where the court has not entered an order of child support, the court shall consider the following factors as a basis for deviation from the presumption in the child support guidelines that child and medical support for the benefit of the child shall be awarded retroactively to the date of the parents' separate or divorce:

(i) whether the remaining spouse knew or could have known of the location of the child or children who had been removed from the marital home by the abandoning spouse; or

(ii) whether the abandoning spouse, or other caretaker of the child, intentionally, and without good cause, failed or refused to notify the remaining spouse of the location of the child following removal of the child from the marital home by the abandoning spouse; and

(iii) the attempts, if any, by the abandoning spouse, or other caretaker of the child, to notify the remaining spouse of the location of the child following removal of the child from the marital home by the abandoning spouse.

(D) In cases in which the presumption of the application of the guidelines is rebutted by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall deviate from the child support guidelines to reduce the mother's, caretaker's, or abandoning spouse's share of the retroactive support award.
